

Ranococas Stable Star, Grey Lag, Wins Empire City Derby at 1 1-4 Miles on Slow Track

Sporting Blood Puts Up Great Duel and Loses by Half-Length

Hildreth Interests Also Capture The Whirl Stakes With Little Chief and Narrowly Miss Having a Field Day at Yonkers Racetrack

By W. J. Macbeth

Grey Lag, the Ranococas Stable's great three-year-old colt, won the Empire City Derby, at a mile and a quarter, the feature of an excellent racing card at the Empire City racetrack yesterday afternoon. Over a track that was still a trifle heavy though quickly drying out, the son of Star Shoot—Miss Minnie galloped that mile and a quarter under the heavy impost of 129 pounds in the good time of 2:07 flat.

Grey Lag beat the Redstone Stable's Sporting Blood by a half length after a bitter duel through the last sixteenth. The Quincy Stable's Copper Demon, six lengths behind the pair mentioned, dropped into third money. Knobbie, a stable mate of Grey Lag and the one with which Sam Hildreth had declared to win, was just about reaching the sixteenth when his stable mate earned the $5,000 that went to the Derby winner. Knobbie was a very much discredited last of the field of four.

It was a great day for the Ranococas Stable, even though trainer Sam Hildreth appeared to be guessing wrong all the while. This formidable racing establishment took not only the Derby with Grey Lag, but also scored brackets in the Whirl Stakes of $7,500, the secondary feature of the afternoon. But in both cases the nominations with which he declared to win failed either Sam or Buddy Ennor dismally.

Grey Lag Saves Day

Grey Lag had to come to the rescue of nobble in the big classic; Little Chief saved the white and green when Kai-Sang came to grief. Kai-Sang, which had been declared in the Whirl, was quickly outtraced and finished ninth among a field of thirteen.

Though Grey Lag won the Empire City Derby, he did not show to the advantage most of his admirers expected. These had come to regard the Star Shoot colt as something of a Man of War. But Grey Lag did not win like a Man of War. Indeed, he was pretty straight in standing off the stout challenge of Sporting Blood at the end and had to be shaken up by Laverne through the final sixteenth. Nor was his victory as widely acclaimed as that of Little Chief in the Whirl. Perhaps this was because fewer of the holiday crowd dared take chances at prohibitive odds. Grey Lag and Knobbie were held at 1 to 4 throughout, while even money could be had against the Kai-Sang-Little Chief combination.

It was the Quincy Stable's Copper Demon that made the Derby the race it was. This one was nominated overnight in the hope that his track would be muddy, for Copper Demon is a real mud horse from the tip of his nose to the last hair in his tail. By the time the feature was put on the track had dried out almost to such a degree that it might be called good. As a result Copper Demon was the outsider with the odds.

Knobbie Sets Pace

They started above the stretch turn, and as the small field swung past the grandstand for the first time, Knobbie was out in front, with Sporting Blood and Copper Demon close up and Grey Lag trailing. During the run down the stretch Money crossed over from an outside position with Copper Demon to the softer going along the rail. At the clubhouse turn, hugging the rail closely, he moved up quickly and went at the top of the stretch.

Before the half-mile mark had been reached Knobbie gave signs that he did not particularly relish Copper Demon's pace. The Quincy colt, once he struck the back straight, soon pulled away from Knobbie by two lengths or more. It could be seen that Knobbie was through.

The factor made a move with Grey Lag. He just eased up to and past the others, then rated his mount behind the pace as they swung up the "hill" and took the far bend. Clarence Kummer, on Sporting Blood, came right at Grey Lag's heels meanwhile, Buddy Ennor, with the leg up on Knobbie, already had relinquished the honor to Grey Lag, for Knobbie was steadily falling back into the pack.

Sporting Blood Spurts

Resolutely and gamely Copper Demon thundered on around the far turn, but with each stride Grey Lag was creeping up on him and to the outside. As they straightened for the short stretch turn the Ranococas star was even terms with the Demon. He quickly drew away to a lead of several lengths. Just then Kummer made his bid for the top position.

Coming to the inside at the stretch turn, the Redstone Stable's colt quickly disposed of Copper Demon for the place, then went out boldly for Grey Lag. Factor scented the danger when he felt his mount weaken about the sixteenth and plied the whip vigorously. Grey Lag responded, but already Sporting Blood was too close for comfort. Through the last sixteenth there was a pretty duel between horses and riders, but Grey Lag had a half-length advantage as the finish was reached.

The Whirl Stakes, a half-mile race, was a pretty close affair. It was a thrill for the favorite stable (half its representation) just did manage to save the day. The race almost resulted in a gigantic upset, as Frank J. Farrell's filly, Nancy P., threatened to spread the field at one time. Nancy P. showed rare gameness and wonderful foot and she carried her weight well, too.

At the start, which was somewhat struggling, Nancy P. raced quickly to the front and cut out such a dazzling pace that most of the youngsters were dizzy trying to catch her. Kai-Sang was lost in the pack somewhere. Factor had to put up the ride of his life to get Little Chief up to the pacemaker. It took the sixteenth pole the effort told on Nancy P. and the Ranococas colors flashed to the front. Little Chief won going away.

Rumster Held at Post

This race as run gave no true line on the merits of the field. Take A. B. Speedwell's start, for example. An assistant starter had this son of Runnymede by the head when the gate was sprung and forgot to turn loose at once. Just why assistants are allowed to look the horse out of the gate but remain a mystery. Invariably they put some contender out of the race and almost without exception one heavily plied.

Rumster suffered all the ill luck that could befall a thoroughbred. Practically left, he was buffeted about when he finally did get to running, and then was carried wide all the way. He closed with a wonderful burst of speed through the stretch and failed by inches to head Penitent for third money. The Whitney filly, by the way, ran an excellent race.

The hardest bit of racing luck seen all season was responsible for the defeat of the Quincy Stable's two-year-old Ray Jay in the last dash of five and a half furlongs. This colt reared was left to length behind the rest of the field, which was off to a straggling start. Joe Mooney worked up on the rail and after being carried away wide at the stretch turn, actually took the lead in the stretch but faltered in the final sixteenth when Mooney pined the filly.

Negro Defeats Plant, National Walk Champion

Jackson, of St. Christopher Club, in Debut as "Ped" Trims Field at Celtic Park

Wilson Jackson, of St. Christopher A. C. cross country runner, made a successful debut as a walker yesterday afternoon when he defeated Willie Jackson, of the Morningglade A. C. national champion, in the one-mile walk at the annual games of the Celtic Park Benevolent Association at Celtic Park. Jackson is the only colored walker in the metropolitan district. He had a handicap of 1:10.

Pat McDonald, New York's little traffic cop, won the sixteen-pound shot put with a leave of 48 feet 10 inches. This was Pat's first appearance since the national championships. The Morningglade A. C. put over two winners in J. Bohling in the 1,000-yard run and A. Trouble in the two-mile run.
